

CITY, CORNHILL

Tower sits at the west end of the church which was built 1715-22 The bells are rung from the first floor. Access by a stone spiral clockwise staircase. There are wooden steps down into the ringing room. The stone spiral staircase continues up to the belfry (check – which floor). There is a sound control system.

The twelve bells are rung in full circle.