

EDGWARE

See details of pattern on the bells from Peter G Scott also for placement of the scroll and coins etc., and dots for Revd.

The last line of the inscription on every bell, except the tenor, is THOS JANAWAY FECIT 1769.

No canons remain. All the bells have been quarter turned but retain cast-in crown staples.

This is the only tower in the London Diocese where the complete ring of bells were cast in the churchyard.
