

STAMFORD HILL

The back six bells have six canons each and are hung on wooden headstocks. They are hung on one level in a wooden 'A' type frame installed in 1865. The two trebles are hung on cast iron headstocks in two pits - 1957.

The bells are rung in full circle.

PN Are the "pits" for the two trebles in fact a possibly metal frame on a different level?