

CITY, HOLBORN, HOLY SEPULCHRE

Tower is at the west end of the church. Access is internal in the south east corner of the tower. Stone clockwise spiral staircase to the ringing room on the first floor.

Access to the bells is via a fabricated metal staircase which is part straight and part spiral in the north east corner through a double shutter into the bells which are hung on one level in a (check) new frame.

The twelve bells are rung in full circle.
